

Captain James Hook and the Curse of Peter Pan (Paperback)

By Jeremiah Kleckner, Jeremy Marshall

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Captain Hook has been captured by the British navy-and is soon to be hung. As Hook tells his life story to his captor, it soon becomes clear that the fearsome pirate was once a scholarly, if sickly boy-until one fateful night in Port Royal, when he meets the volatile Peter Pan . Raise the Jolly Roger and discover the book that opened thousands of eyes to the possibility that, once upon a time, Captain Hook was not the villain we know him to be. Since its publication in June of 2012, this original story takes you through Captain Hook s rise to piracy, including his first confrontation with Long John Silver and his service on the Queen Anne s Revenge alongside Blackbeard at the Charleston Blockade. This book is not a retelling of the events of J. M. Barrie s beloved novel. Far from it. It s a defense of the world s most famous pirate, told by the man himself. Captain Hook has reason and wit behind his hatred for Peter Pan. If only someone would listen.
