Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from A Plan of Instruction for the New York Public Schools Sixth. It would render more rapid and more thorough, the improvement of scholars in all the elementary branches of common education. Seventh. It would set an effective example for other schools, in this and other states, for rendering their systems more natural, practical, and moral, in their operations, and thus render American Education more adequate to the purposes of a Republican Government. On each position here taken, facts can be adduced, of such a character, and in such abundance, as to convince any candid mind, that their soundness and feasibility, are no less evident than their importance. Though it would trespass much too largely upon your time to go into an exposition of the measures referred to, two or three facts among thousands of a similar character, showing that provisions may easily be made for employing usefully the physical, intellectual, and moral energies of children, Which, to a fearful extent, are now running to waste, or to absolute and alarming evil, may be admissible. A joint circular, by Dr. Reese and Mr. Seton, sent to the teachers of the schools, about three weeks before their late recess, resulted, before they closed, in not less than ten thousand elementary Cabinets of Geology, for nearly the same number of families, collected, assorted, and labelled by the pupils; securing, in very many instances, a hearty interest and essential aid from their parents and other friends. Public School No.15, collected, prepared, labelled, and distributed, not less than four hundred such cabinets in one day. They then prepared some specimens of Geology and Geometry for sending to Syracuse, to be...
