Outskirts Press, United States, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .For Kyra, a normal life shared with her husband and three sons is shattered when she is hurtled from inside a pickup onto asphalt into the depths of unconsciousness. When she recovers from her two-and-a-half weeks in a coma, she discovers the endless challenge of flight - her joy of flying and dilemmas in the air. The risks she takes as a female pilot, and the feeling of release that she shares, takes her to a higher level, both physical and spiritual-a metaphor of freedom following her coma. Kyra s journey from childhood on Maui to maturity, covered sporadically throughout the book, will intrigue the reader with the many personalities and interesting adventures encountered. Kyra emerges as a very powerful and fascinating woman. In a swift second, everything changed. The screws on top of the throttle were loose and the handle on the control stick was falling off! With her heart beating fast, seconds to spare, Kyra said a silent prayer. Her direct final approach to Columbia Airport in the Sierras had massive evergreens on either side of their 2,600 foot landing field.
