Addington, of the said district, hath deposited in this office the title of a book, the right whereof he claims as proprietor, in the words following, to wit: Poetical Quotations; being a Complete Dictionary of the most elegant Moral, Sublime, and Humorous Passages in the British Poets. The speculative may here find experience; the flattered, truth; the diffident, resolution; the presumptuous, modesty; the oppressor, mercy; the proud, humility; and the powerful, justice. Youth and age may improve equally by consulting it: -the one it directs-the other it admonishes: Whilst it amends the heart, it informs the head, and is, at the same tune, the rule of virtue, and the standard of poetical eloquence.- Hayward.
