Trafford Publishing, Canada, 2007. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Allow yourself to travel back to 2800 BC and share a year in the lives of a people, who live on a wind-swept island north of Scotland. A long lasting, severe storm rages across the land. Frightened people huddle in their shelters and pray to their ancestors and gods for help. Weeps in despair over her love. Why are there so many storms this winter? Are angry, evil spirits to blame? When winter gives way to the promise of spring, villagers go and hear the Seer's predictions and ponder the mysterious message. Beautiful, young Maveena from the village at round Lake, is a direct descendant of the people's venerated Great Healer. She eagerly waits for the midsummer festival and the day her Coming-of-Age ceremony at the sacred circle of standing stones. The High Priest himself will perform the ceremony, but unknown to anyone he soon plots against Maveena. Tolaf comes to the big festival from his isolated village at Stony Stream with the hope of finding a mate. Maveena and Tolaf meet during the festival's big dances and soon fall in...
