

The Dark Legion

By Michael Holladay

Signalman Publishing. Paperback. Condition: New. 256 pages. Dimensions: 8.9in. x 6.0in. x 0.7in. All his life Thareous was fascinated by the encaged dragon in Galgons palace courtyard. But what was his past, and why was it caged He remembered tales of a beast that had harassed the kingdom a generation past. He often visited with Nalla, a princess, hoping to find an indication of this, for he knows there to be more to the dragon. . . Then, during one visit, the dragon speaks to Thareous and Nalla, warning them of an evil horde marching for Galgon. Soon events turn against them, and the dragon, known as lanvorr, is forced to take them into the forgotten realms of the kingdom, Keiratha. There the exiled order known as the Omnipotent Ones has hidden, but now stir in this time of need. Upon meeting them, Thareous discovers he is the target of a millennia-old prophesy: that he must defeat the gravest threat known to all. The Dark Legion, is the first in Michael Holladays medieval Christian fantasy creation entitled The Keiratha Trilogy. About the author: Growing up the fourth of six sons in the tiny community of Ben Franklin, Texas, Michaels home education...
