

Charmayne James on Barrel Racing

By Charmayne James

Western Horseman, United States, 2005. Paperback. Book Condition: New. First.. 274 x 206 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Her name identifies an industry. Say Charmayne and it's like dropping Babe Ruth's moniker or Michael Jordan's or Lance Armstrong's. People who don't even follow the sport know that Charmayne James is the greatest barrel racer of all time. She burst on to the professional rodeo scene in 1984, winning the first of eleven world championships before her fifteenth birthday. In the next nineteen consecutive years, she qualified for every National Finals Rodeo and became the most decorated female equine athlete of all time. Although in the beginning she was discounted as just another kid with a great horse, rodeo fans around the world soon realized that this rider had something extra. She had trained Scamper herself, and had actually trained her prior mount, one she earned over $20,000 on before switching to Scamper. And she never stopped learning. Absorbing knowledge like a sponge, Charmayne has worked with trainers, equine health professionals, nutritionists, and other experts to always be on the leading edge of competition-based horse care. In a world where longevity is measured more...
