By Caroline A F Rhys Davids

Forgotten Books, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from A Buddhist Manual of Psychological Ethics of the Fourth Century B. C: Being a Translation, Now Made for the First Time, From the Original Pali, of the First Book in the Abhidhamma Pitaka Entitled Dhamma-Sangani (Compendium of States or Phenomena) Is the tombs of Egypt or the ruins of Greece itself were to give up, among their dead that are now and again being restored to us, a copy of some manual with which the young Socrates was put through the mill of current academic doctrine, the discovery would be hailed, especially by scholars of historical insight, as a contribution of peculiar interest. The contents would no doubt yield no new matter of philosophic tradition. But they would certainly teach something respecting such points as pre Aristotelian logical methods, and the procedure followed in one or more schools for rendering students conversant with the concepts in psychology, ethics and metaphysic accepted or debated by the culture of the age.
