CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 162 pages. Dimensions: 8.0in. x 5.2in. x 0.4in. In the modern world of technology, Karyn's grandfather still believes in ancient lore, but it is Karyn who stumbles by accident upon the very thing he seeks, a dragon. Ronwyn, the last living dragon knows that soon she will be discovered and destroyed by humans and she charges Karyn with transporting four dragon eggs to safety. As the last remaining dragon eggs, they are the only hope for the survival of her species. Teased by her twin brother Garyn, thirteen-year-old Karyn leaves the world of video games and technology and heads out on her own to fulfill her promise. During her journey, she finds true friends and uncovers many secrets, some about herself and her missing parents. In the only place where dragons could survive, Karyn and her companions discover that the old legends are much more a part of their lives than they ever thought possible. Even skeptical Garyn, determined to rescue his sister from her crazy imagination, can't resist the pull of this magical world for long. Karyn struggles to find a way to keep her promise and...
