Southeast Missouri State University Press, United States, 2007. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. With dark swollen words and shifting air, Matthew Nienow builds poems as if building boats, each strip like a tree s growth, and asking the question rivers are always asking: why? From Nienow I am grateful to have learned that poetry is movement with one desire: to pull at whatever it touches. There is much talk these days of the importance of a poet s voice. But here we have proof that a poet s ear. for music, for complexity, for the prodigal aria returning home .is just as important. -- Todd Boss.
