God reward you, said Seamas, I shall not forget your kindness to me. 1 It is not worth while talking of that, said Peadar. Good-bye, and may you succeed in life! 2 That is as God will³ it, said the other; however, I must be shortening the journey now, The night was still and calm. The moon was high in the heavens. The road was dry, and beneath his feet the dead⁶ leaves rustled. In the silence⁶ he could hear his heart beat loudly. He dared not look back. Behind him was home and peace: before him the wide world. 85. He came quickly in, but no sooner did he see the priest than he...
