

The Development of Autobiographical Reasoning in Adolescence and Beyond Spring 2011: New Directions for Child and Adolescent Development (Paperback)

By CAD (Child Adolescent Development)

John Wiley Sons Inc, United States, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. Young people s development of autobiographical reasoning represents the evolution of a biographical perspective that frames their individuality in terms of their specific developmental histories. Autobiographical reasoning relies on autobiographical memory, but goes beyond it by enhancing understanding through the active creation of coherence between events and the self. It has been studied in relation to numerous topics, including coping with life events, rumination, life review, narrative identity, and the development of the life story. This volume contextualizes autobiographical reasoning in normative ideas about the life course or life script (Bohn), and in the cultural practice of reading fiction and poems (Mar, Peskin, Fong). Autobiographical reasoning develops in adolescence, building on cognitive and narrative skills acquired in childhood. Although autobiographical reasoning is a cognitive activity, it is often an integral part of narrating life experiences to significant others. Autobiographical reason is studies as a means for creating self-continuity. (Fivush, Bohanek, Zaman), and to process one s own and parents life experiences (McKeough Malcolm). Although autobiographical reasoning is an important ability in our culture, its contribution to an individual s adaptation depends on contexts and...
