

Building Stata: The Design and Construction of Frank O. Gehry s Stata Center at MIT (Paperback)

By Nancy Joyce

MIT Press Ltd, United States, 2004. Paperback. Condition: New. New. Language: English . Brand New Book. The evolution of a Frank Gehry building, from planning and design and architect-client interaction to construction; with color illustrations throughout. This stunning, lavishly illustrated book chronicles the entire planning and construction process of the Frank Gehry-designed Ray and Maria Stata Center at MIT. Taking us from the historical background and architectural context at MIT through the interaction of the clients needs and the architect s vision to the choice of building materials and construction methods, Building Stata offers a uniquely detailed look at the evolution of a major work by a master architect. The purpose of the Stata Center is to bring the intelligence sciences -- computer science, artificial intelligence, information and decision systems, linguistics, and philosophy -- together into a space that emphasizes research-focused collaboration. Frank Gehry s design integrates flexible and interconnected workspaces and incorporates a series of steps from public to private space, with places for social and intellectual interaction on lower levels giving way to space for study and contemplation on the upper floors; thus a two-level warehouse-like space is topped by two towers. The Center is wrapped around a...
