

Keeping Afloat (Paperback)

By M. Travis Lane

Guernica Editions, Canada, Canada, 2001. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. In her new collection, Travis Lane speaks of the impermanent elation that a word, / like a live fish in water, sometimes shows . The language of Keeping Afloat flashes with wit, sensuousness, and a combination of faith (elation) and scepticism (impermanence). In a time when too many poets favour fragments or the plainest syntax, it s also a relief to read the aphorism To read the sentence is to resist fellowship, from a poet whose own style is welcoming and gymnastic in its joinings and its jumps. - Brian Bartle.
