Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.After escaping the Eternal Valley and successfully crossing the Desert of Death, Miky unexpectedly stumbles upon a real god for the first time. The god then questions him about Paradise, the intriguing village where he has just been banished from. As Miky enthusiastically tells the fascinating tales of Abraham (the Fool) and the notorious tragedy of the Giant Snake, he is unaware that the biggest surprise is yet to be revealed at the end of the night by god himself. Human Gods is an intriguing reflection on religion, exploring its origins and controversial interpretations. Seen from the eyes of a teenager and written in a cinematic manner, it guarantees riveting adventure and entertainment through a story that will make you wonder of those things greater than us, forever beyond our reach. Over a decade after writing this book, Alain Xabarde moved on to filmmaking, still telling controversial stories that challenge standard conceptions on our everyday values.
