The volume presents the eighteen tapestries of the Acton Collection, including production from Flanders, France, and Italy from the sixteenth to the eighteenth centuries. The manufacture and historical context of each tapestry are discussed and illustrated. Insights gained from their conservation, past restorations, and technical qualities are included as well. Introductory essays situate the tapestries within the context of early twentieth-century Anglo-American collecting in Florence, and also describe New York University's current approach to tapestry conservation in relation to past Florentine practice. --- Il volume presenta i diciotto arazzi della collezione Acton, la cui produzione si estende dalle Fiandre, alla Francia, all'Italia dal XVI al XVIII secolo. La manifattura e il contesto storico di ogni arazzo sono discussi e illustrati confrontando gli arazzi Acton con opere di altre collezioni private e pubbliche. Inoltre, le conoscenze acquisite grazie alla loro conservazione, i restauri passati e le qualità tecniche sono ampiamente descritte. I saggi introduttivi collocano gli arazzi nel contesto del collezionismo anglo-americano dei primi decenni del XX secolo a Firenze e delineano l'attuale approccio della New York University per la conservazione dell'arazzo in relazione alle pratiche passate del restauro fiorentino.
