By Dean Gualco

iUniverse, United States, 2008. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. The great people of our time . followed their passions, overcome any obstacles, went down swinging for what they believed in, and in the end, left legacies that shaped our world. Their journeys were exciting and invigorating. History shows us ordinary men and women have achieved extraordinary feats. Following their passions, confronting obstacles, and going down swinging for what they believe in-these traits truly define great people. In the end, their journeys have created a profound legacy that has shaped our world. By reading the inspiring stories of those who lived their lives with honor, decency, and goodness, you can discover your own passions. You ll learn how to stand up for what s right, even if you stand alone. You can find the courage to fight the right fight and do the right thing. By learning from others, you too can improve the human condition and better our world. The Great People of Our Time brings into sharp focus how happiness comes to those who appreciate and use all they have been given for good intentions. This guide book will help...
