THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS AND WOMEN IN OFFICE SERVICE (CLASSIC REPRINT) (PAPERBACK)

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from The Public Schools and Women in Office Service The report of the Commission on National Aid to Vocational Education, published June 1, 1914, recommends that more definite studies be made to supply information which may be used in the training of commercial workers. The report points out that there is a surprising lack of information respecting commercial conditions affecting commercial education. It is, perhaps, strange that an enterprise like commercial education which has been so largely undertaken in our public schools should possess so meager a basis of concrete evidence for established procedure. Our organized information upon commercial education has been limited to statistics regarding number of pupils, teachers, schools and appropriations. The report above-mentioned states that we need information concerning other and more important matters, such as supply and demand for trained commercial workers, distribution, selection and placement, and the changing conditions of commerce and their consequent effects upon commercial education. During the past year three important investigations have been undertaken in and about Boston with the purpose of securing this much needed fact basis for commercial education, and this report presents the results of one of these studies. The other two investigations were conducted respectively by the Committee on Education of the Boston Chamber of Commerce, and by a Committee of Commercial Teachers representing the Massachusetts State Board of Education. No reports have yet been published as the result of these latter investigations. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
