Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Love-Story of Aliette Brunton In our heart of hearts - which we in England take almost as much pains to hide from ourselves as from our fellow-creatures - most of us realize that life without love is a weariness, a conflict bereft of hope, a struggle for no victory. Yet Love, the Real Thing - whether it be love of a god or love of our fellow-creatures, the love of a man for his mate, of a mother for her son, of a friend for his friend or a girl for her chosen - is not the law of the majority. Because Love, the Real Thing - as all real things - demands infinite self-sacrifice: and infinite self-sacrifice is too divine a code for the average imperfect human being, who must needs make himself other codes or perish. This, therefore, Aliette s love-story, deals of necessity with the self-sacrifices endured not only by Aliette but by many of those who came within the orbit of her personality. Rightly to understand the people of this...
