It is so easy for life to get in the way of Life. So many things occupy our time and thinking we are tempted to have no focus at all. We just flit from circumstance to circumstance, thought to thought or day to day, never really being grounded in the reality of the truth. Just like looking through a pair of binoculars that has not been focused, everything around us can appear blurred. Life can seem fuzzy, confusing and without purpose. It is when we have adjusted our focus that we can actually see the true image in front of us. The object was there all the time. It was our lack of focus that obscured it. By faith in this truth, you come to understand that God loves you and wants to spend eternity with you. For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have everlasting life (John 3:16). For most of us there is a lot of life left after our new birth. How do we get through day-by-day events - some pleasant and...
