Notwith?anding the ap patently adverfe {late of things, the pens of our countrymen are far from idle; and letters, as well as commerce, firuggle with fuccesfs againlt the unavoid able difadvantages of general war. For feveral months it has been necefiary for us to contract our account of foreign publications, in order to keep pace, in any degree, with thole of Englilh (growth and though among the multitude there certainly are many trivial, and many bad performances, which re quire or deferve no honorary notice, yet the propor tion feems to be preferxfed, and we have full as much to praire, at the termination of each period, as we could in leafon expect. Should the return of quiet. And fecurity, whenever Providence {hall grant: thole blehings, excite proportionable ell rts, we {hall indeed behold a golden Age of Science; but this perhaps is...
