REHABILITATION IN PARKINSON'S DISEASE

Rehabilitation in Parkinson's disease

Condition: New. Publisher/Verlag: LAP Lambert Academic Publishing | Parkinson's disease (PD) is the second most common degenerative disease of the nervous system, whose incidence increases with age. Despite increasing progress in the treatment of PD, resulting from development of diagnostic methods and experimental research into the understanding of the essence of this disease, an increase in the severity of disability is still observed with the passing time. Physiotherapy is one of the non-pharmacological methods, which through its complexity, phases and...
