

Nobody Has to Know (Paperback)

By Danielle Boone

Createspace Independent Pub, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. Vanessa has always been a supportive and good friend to many people. Losing her father at a young age and her mother being in a crazy home, the only family she has is her brother and grandmother. Her heart belongs to Gary, her best friend, even though he doesn't know, and her boyfriend has a special place in her heart. While Vanessa thought her only problems were choosing between the two men she loves, things spin out of control when there is a lead in her father's murder. Her boyfriend doesn't make this sudden mayhem any better when he drops a secret on her that she was never expecting. Tamara had been looking for love in all the wrong places, but, when she met Gary, she knew she had finally met the one. However, when she finds out that Gary has been cheating on her, in devastation, she runs to the arms of another man, while taking care of some unfinished business with Gary, that she must settle before completely cutting all ties with him. And even though revenge is on her mind, she...
