And pray what is this hurt above my heel? Have you had a fellow-feeling with my lord Jieutenant of the gout, and call it a sprain, as he does? who has lain.j-so long and often to disguise it, that I verily think he has not a new story left. Does he do the same in Ireland; for there I hoped he would have given a better example I I find you are grown a horrid flatterer, or else you could never have thought of any thing so much to my taste as this piece of marble yon speak of for my sister Penelope, which I desire may be at my expence. I cannot be exact, neither as to the time nor year, but she died soon after we came there, and we did not stay quite two years, and were...
