Excerpt from The Deity of Christ: A Sermon Delivered July 31, 1810, Before the Haverhill Association, and Published at Their Request The subject which this passage brings to view, is most interesting. In the great business of religion, we have much, very much to do with Jesus Christ. We shall all soon appear before him, as our final Judge. To have some just knowledge of him, then, must be of infinite moment. If Christ be a creature, those who treat him as God, are chargeable with idolatry. This all allow. If he be God, are those who degrade him to the level of a mere creature, in no danger of impiety - Let us, my brethren, feel the solemnity of the subject. Let us contemplate it with profoundest seriousness and humility. And may the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, give us the Spirit of wisdom and revelation, in the knowledge of him self, and of his dear Son!
