Excerpt from Ireland and the Empire: A Speech, Delivered Before the St. Patrick s Society, in Nordheimer s Hall, Montreal, on St. Patrick s Day, 1885 So pressed am I with private business affairs calling me to New York that almost at any other time, or on any other occas10n, much as I have deemed to meet an audience, and especially an Irish audience, in Montreal, I should have declined the honour of addressing you. But at a time when revolting crimes, and meaningless as revolting, are connected with the name of Ireland, I felt that nothing should prevent my being present at a meeting of Irishmen on St. Patrick s Day in that crty of the Dominion where there is the largest irish population, to ask you to join with me in protesting against outrages which are as much Without meaning as moral lty, and with which 1 would fain hope no Irishman, acting as an Irishman and aiming at Irish objects, was ever connected. (cheers) As I wrote to your president when be con veved to me your invitation, I have...
