How to be Black

By Baratunde Thurston

HarperCollins Publishers Inc, United States, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 201 x 135 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Raised by a pro-black, Pan-Afrikan single mother during the crack years of 1980s Washington, DC, and educated at Sidwell Friends School and Harvard University, Baratunde Thurston has over thirty years experience being black. Now, through stories of his politically inspired Nigerian name, the heroics of his hippie mother, the murder of his drugabusing father, and other revelatory black details, he shares with readers of all colors his wisdom and expertise in how to be black. Beyond memoir, this guidebook offers practical advice on everything from How to Be The Black Friend to How to Be The (Next) Black President to How to Celebrate Black History Month . To provide additional perspective, Baratunde assembled an awardwinning Black Panel-three black women, three black men, and one white man (Christian Lander of Stuff White People Like) - and asked them such revealing questions as: When did you first realize you were black? How black are you? Can you swim? The result is a humorous, intelligent, and audacious guide that challenges and satirizes the so-called experts, purists, and racists who purport to speak...
