Diamond Pocket Books (P) Ltd., 2013. Softcover. Book Condition: New. 14 x 21 cm. When a person moves to a new place and has to learn a new language to make themselves understood, it can be a daunting prospect. All mundane activities like greeting a neighbour and shopping can become difficult tasks. This is why so many books are available that aim to teach readers the basics of a language so that they can be ready to start speaking it within a short period. Learn Telugu In 30 Days Through English is one in a series of language coaching books from Diamond Books. It takes a practical approach to helping its readers learn new languages. The book quickly introduces the basics of a language then builds useful skills. The book starts by introducing Telugu alphabets, then lists common words and then goes on to help the readers put together sentences after providing some basic grammar rules. The book includes some practical and useful phrases and sentences to help the reader get started. The book enables readers to grasp the language fast as it uses English to teach them the basics.
