Also, in 2013 video evidence was released from the National Archives that demonstrates conclusively the final chapter of volume 1, that the shells implicating Oswald in the National Archives were planted there. To see this video evidence, go to YouTube and search for Krusch Oswald framed. Additional evidence can be found searching for Krusch Kennedy review. Of all the topics in American history, few are more important than the Kennedy assassination. Those who have read Volumes 1 and 2 of this series know that the evidence is in: Lee Harvey Oswald was framed. Oswald, as an analysis of research gathered over the last four decades clearly shows, was an undercover intelligence agent posing as a communist, thus making him the perfect fall guy to be maneuvered into position by his handlers with phony cover stories, thus explaining the evidence of his suspicious behavior. This book, like the others in the series, goes heavily into the weeds in search of the truth. Many people want to avoid the weeds, but that's where the perpetrators threw the murder gun. As you read this book, it becomes clear who the conspirators were: the people with the power to frame Lee Harvey Oswald. A very small, very powerful group at the very top of the hierarchy. Paradoxically, the Case Against Oswald, perhaps the weakest in American jurisprudence, boomerangs into a case against his accusers. Highlights of this book include: The Case of the Incredible Moving Boxes (Proposition One, Element Three); The 12 reasons why the single-bullet theory is a total fantasy; A final analysis of the confidence level for Proposition One; A Virtual Jury of 12...
