I too was glad to see Mr. Peake ALL repudiate that e-mail in the strongest possible terms. Next is Mrs. Kathryn Witt from Gold Star Wives. STATEMENT OF KATHRYN A. WITT ITT Ms. W. Thank you for allowing me to testify today. Most of my testimony was about a survivors office and the need for a sur-vivors office, but you have already addressed that and said you have drafted legislation on the issue. So I will just skip over that. The one thing I would like to mention is that the Army has an excellent long-term family care office, and that would make a great model for a VA survivors office. We would like to see our national service officers trained by the VA in survivor affairs, have a specific module of their training on survivor benefits. We would also like to see that training available to the survivor representatives...
