

If Harlem Could Talk It Would Scream: Short Stories in Harlem Noire (Paperback)

By MR James a Gillard

135th Infinity, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . If there are 8 million stories in the naked city then Harlem has a million. Most of them can be told by one of its greatest inhabitants - black men. Fame greed love and a sense of purpose are the common denominator. But with new real estate, economic resurgence and a greater divide between the haves and have nots there voices have been lost. Listen to a small time drug dealer as he makes a name in the crack game. He will soon learn that it s not what not what you do that matters, but what you say that does. Then there s the rehabilitated writer who returns back to Harlem a place where his past and present collide and only he can tell the difference. Unbeknownst to him he is about to write his greatest work - his life. Then there s the jazz connoisseur who watches with apprehension as the young rapper moves into his building. This sets into motion a chain of events, which proves change if even not welcomed is inevitable. These are some of the...
