300 Hundred Years at the Keyboard - 2nd Edition (Hardback)

By Patricia Fallows-Hammond

Ross Books, United States, 2010. Hardback. Book Condition: New. 2nd annotated edition. 284 x 213 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Choice Magazine (a major library review magazine): After an introductory section on the history of the piano, particularly as reflected in and influenced by works of the major composers for the instrument, this interesting and informative book describes various compositional schools, from Austro-German, French, and Italian through English, American, Russian, Spanish, Japanese, and others. This section constitutes a brief course in music history beginning with the Renaissance. . The body of the work consists of historical and stylistic sketches of 17 composers, with brief remarks about several works of each, and lists of selected works, ending with a complete work or movement. These sketches are exceptionally well written, assuming an intelligent reader, and convey a great deal of information concisely. this book contains much well-organized and useful material. For libraries serving serious amateur pianists, high school upward.  Booklist (The book review magazine of the American Library Association): This authoritative volume will make a solid addition to the public library music collection. After offering a brief opening chapter on the evolution of the piano...
