

The Rains of War

By M. H. Mayfield

Wandering Bard Press. Paperback. Condition: New. 334 pages. Dimensions: 8.0in. x 5.2in. x 0.8in. What would you do... to protect the ones you love? The year is 573-New World, and Kyrianna Maclarens life is changing. In the midst of a successful career as an officer with the Royal Engineers, she is summoned home after the death of her mother. A new Euthanization Directive passed by the Prime Minister of the Region of Alba, formerly known as the United Kingdom, places her sister in danger. Kyrianna is desperately trying to get her sister to a secret village known as Lidir, when Miyanna goes missing. At the insistence of their uncle Rowan, Kyrianna accompanies him to Lidir to seek out the help of her oldest friend Madoc to aid with the search. When Kyrianna receives word that Miyanna has been taken to a research facility known as the Cauldron, she then decides to embark on the dangerous undertaking of rescuing her sister. She enlists the aid of her former military mates from the 59th Commando Squadron, one of whom is Elias Buchanan, a retired Combat Medical Technician. As each one navigates a dark and divisive time, they soon realize their journeys...
