

Hog Valley

By Gary Showalter

BookSurge Publishing. Paperback. Condition: New. 358 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.9in. Terry Rankin is the owner of Rankin Protective Services Inc, in Orlando, Florida. Its a small company with a few very nice contracts. Terry has a meeting scheduled with Travis Warren, at his horse ranch just north of Ocala. He has invested a few months in negotiating for a very lucrative contract to provide bodyguard services to Mr. Warren and his family, and this is the morning when all of that time and effort are going to pay off for him. He does not expect to walk into a home invasion. As the thieves wrap up their looting, Rankin, along with Mr. and Mrs. Warren, are being held in Travis Warrens office. Terry watches through the French doors along the rear wall of the room as five well-dressed but slightly disheveled Latino gentlemen cross the back lawn and step up onto the flagstone patio. As the leader of the thieves raises his shotgun toward Rankin and the Warrens, Terry watches in relief as the Latinos open fire into the backs of the invaders. What Rankin doesnt know is that the five Latinos have orders to shoot him on...
