So may thy poet, cloud-born stream! be free-- The sweets of earth contentedly resigned, And each tumultuous working left behind At seemly distance--to advance like thee; Prepared in peace of heart, in calm of mind And soul, to mingle with Eternity. Soon after this, Duddon enters the staid and sober stage of his later existence. His gambols and his merry pranks are ended, and, now that the last bridge is passed, he soon spreads widely over the sandy estuary. Not hurled precipitous from steep to steep; Lingerin no more mid flower-enamelled lands And blooming thickets; nor by rocky bands...
