

Fixing America (Paperback)

By Oliver Wyker

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Solutions to the major problems afflicting the U.S. are given. The purpose of government should be to enforce a fair competition for the rewards available in society, a competition based on merit. Here are some of the suggested solutions: The current system of high school and college education should be replaced by apprenticeships and adult education. Global warming should be addressed by increasing nuclear power as well as solar and wind, heavily taxing gasoline, and developing an Interstate Railroad System. Political parties should be banned. The Office of Management and Budget must allow spending only the $ amount the government receives each month. We must stop swindling our youth, and fold Social Security into the health care system. The marriage license must be transformed from a license to steal, to a universal system of child support. The insurance industry must be dismantled, and the stock market drastically reformed. The population explosion should be tackled by curtailing immigration, and by mandatory sterilization of all 12 year olds with significant genetic impairment, whether physical or mental. The current wasteful system of...
