

High Hopes In Hopetown

By John Dzwonkowski

CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 182 pages. Dimensions: 8.0in. x 5.2in. x 0.4in. Toby Thompson turns 13 this fall. Hes got his work cut out for him. These are the days when middle school, soccer, and life can each drive ya crazy! He shows up for his first day of middle school, science class, with his giant best friend Freddie; only to be startled to red-alert by a bizarre science teacher in a superman costume whos got a two-headed turtle for an assistant. He even forgets for a brief moment his worries about the schools soccer team tryouts that afternoon; only to show up and find out that hes the new center defender on the Hopetown Eagles, the hometown-favorite middle school team that only had 15 guys show up for tryouts. Seems like a couple of last years ringers signed on with the newly-formed Hopetown Raiders, under former semi-pro, snake-in-the-grass Bull Taggert, whose son Kirk, their teams star, is easily the dirtiest player Tobys ever been on the field with. And the Hopetown Eagles are due to be on the field with em again, this time with half the city watchin and screamin!...
