By MR Crighton Nyereyemhuka Ma

Createspace, United States, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Overview: This book is a sermon on how people should serve God faithfully by moving away from hypocrisy and avoiding falling into temptations. The book starts with explaining who Christ is, and goes on to highlight what He taught the world throughout His ministry, by way of His preaching and the exemplary life He lived. The book shows how Satan misleads people who love God and how they end up doing things that displease God. By reading this book, the reader gets important lessons on how to shun sin and how to truly serve God by way of deeds that are consistent with Christ's teachings. The book emphasises the need for people to love one another and how this should be reflected in the way they help each other and live in harmony. The author boldly points out what he believes to be misleading and wayward practices currently common among Christians. Biblical examples to illustrate how truthful and faithful God is are given. The examples centre on how God rescues, protects and blesses His faithful followers. The book warns people to be...
