Forgotten Books, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Suggestions in Regard to the Proposed Removal of the State Reform School: In Westboro , And the State Industrial School, in Lancaster There are two bills now before the Legislature, one for establishing a reformatory in the now unoccupied part of the main building at Westboro , the boys of the Reform School continuing to occupy their present quarters in the old building adjoining and in the two family houses outside. The other bill provides for removing the Boys Reform School to Lancaster, for abolishing the Girls School at Lancaster, and for sending the younger girls to Monson, those over fifteen, i.e., nearly three fourths of those committed, being excluded for the future from the Industrial School and driven either to Sherborn or to houses of correction. The bill for the reformatory meets a need long felt in the community and recognized by the courts for an intermediate institution between the Reform School and the prisons. Early in the winter the trustees united with the Commissioners of Prisons in proposing a plan for thus utilizing the Westboro large building, with its cells and workshops, for a reformatory, asking an equivalent with which to build family houses for the Boys School on another part of the Westboro farm. This plan being disapproved as too expensive, the trustees decided to withdraw the objection they had made to the experiment of the reformatory in the adjoining building, preferring this to the radical changes proposed in the bill to abolish the Industrial School, etc., which, if enacted, would, they believe, prove injurious to all the three schools; while they object to changing the locution of the Reform School from that approved by the generous donor...
