CONFESSIONS OF A WAR CHILD

CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 204 pages. Dimensions: 7.9in. x 5.2in. x 0.7in. The first story of the trilogy. . . . Also check out: Confessions of a War Child (Lia), the second book. Weddings signify the eternal bond between two people in love; however, when a bullet ends one marriage at the exact moment of the union, the lasting damage will throw two towns into war and one wife into a lifetime of grief. At the age of eighty-seven, sixty-six years after the fateful wedding day, Camilia has never stopped grieving the loss of her soul mate or uncovered the untold secret that remains buried deep within her being. But when the key to her secret falls into the hands of Nader, a twenty-four-year-old refugee, their paths will ultimately come together in the end. Narrated by the deceased groom, this amazing tale takes us through Camilia's devastating past and Nader's exciting journey to return what's hers. Chaker Khazaal's Confessions of a War Child: A Compelling Novel Demonstrating the Power of Love is a War Worth Winning is an eye-opening work of fiction inspired by the true stories of war children. Weaving a beautiful love story amidst dangerous warfare and a sense of intrigue, the novel creates a mesmerizing atmosphere that will capture readers from the very beginning. Utilizing a mix of romantic fiction, war stories, mystery, and murder, this wonderful story is a gripping thriller that will captivate readers of all backgrounds and tastes. Khazaal's novel uniquely blends fiction with truth in an engrossing manner that can't be denied. The author expertly combines a group of separate stories about multiple people into one cohesive narrative, creating an enthralling tale that stands by itself in a unique genre all its own. As the...
