

Making a World of Difference One Quilt at a Time: Inspiring Stories about Quilters and How They Have Touched Lives

By Ruth McHaney Danner

New World Library. Paperback. Condition: New. 272 pages. Dimensions: 5.0in. x 0.0in. x 8.0in. Quilts exemplify comfort through the warmth they provide; community, since they are often created by groups; and love, given the time and effort they require. The quilters profiled here know this and have turned something they love doing into a way of showing love. Each chapter introduces a quilter or group of quilters. They include elderly women in Michigan who create bedcovers for a homeless shelter, an Indiana group that makes quilts for every member of every Habitat for Humanity house built in their county, and a Massachusetts woman who organized the sewing of quilts for everyone injured in the Boston Marathon bombing. From a blind woman in Texas to preschoolers in Australia, these people are making their compassion tangible one stitch, square, and quilt at a time. Their wonderfully inspiring stories show that everyone who has ever wondered, but what can I do can do something that will help someone. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
