Planet of No Return / The Annihilator Comes

By Browne, Howard / Repp, Ed Earl

Armchair Fiction:, Medford, 2013. Condition: New. Trade paperback, New, "The first novel is written by heralded author and editor, Howard Browne. The Princess Ana-Bet came 40,000 miles and faced the terrors of an untamed planet in search of her missing lover. But once finding herself caught in the searing gaze of a lustful savage she wondered?could this be what she was really looking for? In addition to being an action-filled science fiction thriller, Howard Browne's "Planet of No Return" is an epic love story that transcends not only the lines of social propriety, but the laws of the universe. Join the courageous crew from Andara and the intrepid inhabitants of a barbarian planet as man and woman, civilized and uncivilized, collide in a hectic fight for freedom, love, and glory. The second novel The Annihilator Comes was written by Ed Earl Repp. Commander Bob Allison was ready to take America's newest, flying military craft, The Annihilator II, on its maiden voyage. It was indeed the most amazing flying vessel ever constructed, able to soar into outer space and cruise at speeds well over a thousand miles per hour. But a last-minute international disaster changed a maiden voyage into a rescue...

Reviews

Thorough guide! Its this sort of excellent read. It is really simplified but unexpected situations in the 50 % in the book. You are going to like just how the blogger create this publication.
