Forgotten Books, 2018. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Address Before the Alumni Association of the University of North Carolina: Delivered in Gerard Hall, June 2, 1847, the Evening Preceding Commencement The Press began its work in 1639 a century afterwards it had earned the prohibitibn of England, and was strong enough to defy ii and at this day, it asserts its freedom by an in?uence which is only not despotic because it is not harmonious. far outstripping by its enterprise the fertility of our own writers, the American press appropriates unshrinkingly the literary treasures of the whole earth while it almost forbids Importation of books by the cheap ness with which it reprints them, and the facility with which it scatters them among all classes of the reading community. But the most striking displays of its activity and power are only to be witnessed in the field of Journalism, where it more than equals France in knows no other rival throughout the world. It printed the first newspaper in America in the year 1704; in 1828 it had joined an additional number of eight hundred and fifty and, at this...
