OUT OF WHAT CHAOS (PAPERBACK)

New Academia Publishing, LLC, United States, 2007. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Set on the West Coast during Bush II s first term, Out of What Chaos showcases the escapades of Rex and The Brains as they settle into the Portland rock scene, record their first CD, and tour from Vancouver to LA behind their chart-topping single, F U. I Just Want To Get My Rocks Off. The boys party on, finding their way amidst the frenzied panorama of twenty-first century America. The country embraces them in all its crazy glory, from witches to priests, from groupies to politicians, from drug dealers to porno stars to college professors. As the band s fame grows, tragedy strikes, and Freddie finds himself torn between his rock-and-roll lifestyle and his girlfriend, Sheila Corcoran, whose claim on his heart continues to grow. In the end, the worlds of love and celebrity collide, and Freddie must make a decision about how to live. In a world where the choices offered are life-denying or trivial, Oser negotiates a set of alternatives for his characters-and his readers. -James Najarian, Boston College. Well-versed in the lifestyle, Lee Oser has...
