TWO SONS AND FORTY YEARS (HARDBACK)

Horatio Publishing, 2016. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Jon has been serving as Senior Pastor of The Summer Hill Memorial Church of Verona, Georgia for the past ten years. He is successful and well liked, but wants to push himself to earn a Doctor of Ministry degree. With a deadline for declaring his intended capstone project fast approaching he is frantically searching for a subject that will satisfy his faculty supervisor, Dr. Dan. Jon believes that a project focusing on funerals will be easy because he has a lot of experience, he is good at it, and it is a practical part of ministry. Dr. Dan believes this is a cop out for Jon and will not approve the proposed project. During his search for a new proposal, Jon is visited by Reggie Cornelius. Reggie requests Jon s guidance in resolving a conflict with his younger brother, Spike. According the last will and testament of the deceased mother, Reggie is now the sole owner of the family printing business. He expects to sell the business to a national corporation and use this inheritance to fund his long-awaited retirement. For the record, Spike received his inheritance thirty years ago when he coerced their father into splitting off his share. That early division of the family inheritance mirrors the model set forth in the famous Prodigal Son parable from the Gospel According to Luke. As in the ancient story, the loving father reinstated Spike when he returned home and went back to work in the family printing business. Now that the parents are deceased Spike believes he is entitled to a sizeable share of the proceeds from the sale of the company. He rightly argues that the value of the company has been...
