There is little to be done, in such an undertaking, except to collect, arrange, and simplify, and to adapt the work, in all its parts, to the precise place which it is intended to fill. The introduction into our schools, within the last few years, of the subjects of Natural Philosophy, Astronomy, Mineralogy, Chemistry, and Drawing, has given rise to a higher grade of elementary studies; and the extended applications of the mechanic arts call for additional information among practical men. To understand the most elementary treatise on Natural Philosophy, or the simplest work on the Mechanic Arts, or even to make a plane drawing, some knowledge of the principles of Geometry is indispensable; and yet, those in whose hands such works are generally placed, or who...
