

The Light at Hopes End

By Kathy Dolman

5 Fold Media, LLC. Paperback. Condition: New. 229 pages. Ray Weber peers out through the darkness, mesmerized by a mysterious light on the mountainside opposite from his home high above the town. What could it be he wonders, as he feels drawn unexplainably toward the light from deep inside. Could it be the miracle that the town has waited for? A struggling small-town pastor with a crumbling family and fading ministry. A distraught, lonely waitress facing her dying mother's last days alone. A desperate young black man in the grips of a street gang teetering on the brink of destruction. A twenty-something party boy hovering over the line between the need to survive and a life of crime. What do they all have in common? They've reached Hopes End in the town of Hopes End and are desperately in need of a miracle. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
