Pub Date :2003-01-01 Publisher: Intellectual Property Press title: the reform of state-owned enterprises can not evade open privatization original price: 21 yuan Author: Cao Siyuan Publisher: Intellectual Property Press Publication Date: 2003 - 1-1 0:00:00 ISBN: 9787800118401 words: Page: Revision: Binding: Folio: Weight: Editor's Choice We Chinese people pay attention to the sense of the word. idiom called name is not correct then the words will not ring true. the words ring true then nothing will be accomplished . Generally. to make things a success. can not but consider the sense of the word problem. The early 1980s. when I presented the proposal to develop the Enterprise Bankruptcy Law. the State Council. many well-intentioned colleagues advised me: Why would call the bankruptcy law? Multi ugly! Better than a change of name. corporate shooting revitalization law or reorganization of the enterprise law. does not sound harsh. something to use the word revitalization. rectification to express. not accurate. are correct words ring true book is to study Chinese with the empiricism of experience economic reform. found that the issue of privatization of state-owned enterprises is not open around the executive summary of state reform theory is blocked for a number of years. but the downward trend of the state-owned share is a moment not stop. this is perhaps the the power of the objective laws. it was said the objective laws of invisible. intangible. I would specifically state ownership in four field dropped data graphs plotted a four arrow down. in a speech at the meeting temple shows out I said: My friends. the objective laws here. and you want to see. wanted to touch on the touch hand it! I...
