ThinkBlot Publishing. Paperback. Condition: New. 144 pages. Dimensions: 7.8in. x 5.1in. x 0.3in. Hes been here before with Trichotomy : this is me when he introduced himself to the world. Now that the introductions are over and the honeymoon stage has begun. Are you excited David Solomon is, and it shows in this new collection of poetry Things My Heart Says, each poem is a journey through the heart and relationships. Over the last two years David Solomon has had the opportunity to reflect on his life, more specifically his love life. While observing his friends and family as they take steps into marriage and committed relationships, David Solomon was trying to understand the word love and its relevance and existence. For a while he lost faith in the definition of the word love and could not understand how so many people say they love someone, but still act as if they dont. Its true what they say, actions do speak louder than words, at least to David Solomon they do. So calling it quits on love, he decided to dive deeper into why he used the word and what love meant to him. Wondering if there was a difference between love for family and love for a companion or even love for his friends, well David Solomons heart had a lot to say about love, so heres what it said. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
