Shee (Paperback)

By Meri Rose Shenk

AUTHORHOUSE, United States, 2009. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Could you survive three and a half years on a South Pacific island that didn't technically exist? Would it be easier if seventy-two million dollars in drug revenue were yours for the taking if you were ever rescued? How would it change your life? After witnessing a drug deal, Marin, a Kansas City decorator, survived the ship's explosion, the men hunting her and the isolation by her cleverness and resourcefulness, with the aid of flotsam washed up on shore. Ramone, a typhoon-displaced fisherman rescued Marin, the only survivor, and the new life of Shee had begun, the identity and the plans perfected throughout her long wait. Together they forged a relationship based on trust, secrets, lies and money while building a hotel empire on Martinique, her Caribbean playground and, eventually, her killing field. Raef, now a priest and Thom, the attorney who would become her fiancé, were told the truth but was she too cool, contriving and deceptive for love to overcome? A vicious gun battle at the Miami wharf was the second crack in Thom's love. Shee was desperately...
